Description:

To promote strong entrepreneurship among students, The Chettinad College of Engineering and Technology- Entrepreneurship Development Cell/ Institutions Innovation Council organized a EDII-TN Sponsored “Entrepreneurship Awareness Programme” for all department final year UG students on 30-08-2022 from 2.00 pm to 3.30 pm at ‘C’ Block Seminar Hall. The Session was chaired by Mr.Parthiban Veluchamy, Founder & CEO, Native Special Products Pvt Ltd, Karur.

Mr.Parthiban Veluchamy delivered a lecture on start-up guide for an emerging entrepreneur for our final year students. He handled the topics like, what is a start-up and Entrepreneurship? Why we need to do start up? How we can start up and the difference between start up and cultural business. Finally, he suggested some government funding schemes for start-up to apply and to get sanctioned.

Our students were highly motivated by the session, and the programme was really helpful in terms of developing entrepreneurial skills. Totally 150 students attended the session.

Relevant Details:

Total No of Students: 169

Total no of Students Present: 150

Total no of Students absents: 19

Outcomes:

- Students understand how to start a business and its requirements
- Understand the business plan
- Understand the detailed financial plan with business costs, funding, and revenue projections
- Students can get sparks on creativity and effective communication
